BRIDGEWATER, VIRGINIA

VOLUME 21

NINETEEN HUNDRED AND FORTY-THREE

FOREWORD

In this "Aurora" of 1943, we, the Students of Bridgewater, have created for ourselves a lasting book of "Memories" of these days that have been the happiest of our lives. To all who look through these pages we wish to express our gratitude for all the pleasure and enjoyment we have experienced in compiling this annual, and for the right which we have had to express our hopes and visions for the future. With the high purpose of protecting and of honoring these privileges, we intend to live the coming years in the spirit in which we have carried out our duties and privileges here at Bridgewater High.
